We, the graduating class, in all reverence dedicate the Lasso of 1952 to our friend and former classmate, Frank Thompson.

His life had only just begun,
Why did he have to go?

The question that is often asked,
The answer we don't know.

But this much we must all believe,
Though futile it may seem.

The Good Lord must have needed Frank,
To play upon His team.

ALMA MATER

Come let us sing to thee dear Alma Mater;
Lift every voice, lift every heart in praise.
We bow before thy white and shining spirit
Leading us on to fear not, be strong.
We salute thee, thine own proud sons and daughters
Dear Alma Mater, our own Mifflin.

GOOD THINGS TO LEARN

Learn to laugh: A good laugh is better than medicine.

Learn to attend to your own business: Few men can do that well.

Learn to say kind things: Nobody ever resents them!

Learn to avoid hasty remarks: They cause much of the world's trouble.

Learn to stop grumbling: See some good in the world or keep the bad to yourself.

Learn to hide aches with a smile: Nobody is much interested anyway.

And above all, learn to smile: It pays!

—Good News

We, the 1952 Lasso staff, wish to express our sincerest thanks to the faculty and the student body for the splendid cooperation given us. We also want especially to thank our advertisers, Baker Art Gallery and the Heer Printing Company for helping to make our yearbook a real success.

The Cowpunchers ended a somewhat unsuccessful football season with a record of nine loses and no wins. Yet, the boys fought their hearts out in every game and against some of the stiffest competition in this area. Next year Mifflin expects to return to its winning ways with a bigger, betted and more experienced team.

The Football Jamboree—The Mifflin Cowpunchers opened their football season by playing Grove City in the annual Football Jamboree at Mifflin on September 7. The Cowpunchers lost to Grove City by the score of 14-0. Dublin defeated Lincoln, and Reynoldsburg downed New Albany.

Cambridge—The Cowpunchers played their first regular season game against Cambridge, which was 86 miles away. On the way to Cambridge the boys were in the usual happy mood. The team stopped at the Casino Restaurant in Zanesville for a steak dinner given by the Booster Club. Arriving at Cambridge, the Cowpunchers were handed their first in a series of nine defeats by the score of 84-0.

West Jefferson—The West Jefferson game was played at Mifflin. The West Jefferson team handed Mifflin their second defeat by a score of 26-0.

Reynoldsburg—Reynoldsburg was the second game away from home. Reynoldsburg was the only team Mifflin scored against this year. The scoring for Mifflin was done by Dale Cooperider, who in the third quarter, ran 72 yards to score the only touchdown of the season. The final score was 26-6.

Groveport—The Groveport game was the second game to be played at Mifflin . This year the Cowpunchers dropped their fourth game to Groveport with the final score ending 26-0.

Dublin—The Dublin game, which was played at Dublin, was one of the fatal loses suffered by Mifflin this year. The Cowpunchers tried their best to stop the Dublin team from scoring, but it was of no avail. The Dublin team came out on top with a score of 65.0.

Hamilton—Hamilton was the quest of Mifflin in the clash between the two teams. The Hamilton team, due to the running of Ted Tope, trounced the Cowpunchers by one of the highest scores of the season 75-0.

New Albany—The New Albany team, having lost every game for 3 years straight to Mifflin, defeated the Cowpunchers after a long, hard and exciting struggle. The game with New Albany was Mifflin's homecoming and was a colorful occasion. The Cowpunchers were very unhappy when New Albany handed them their seventh consecutive defeat with the score ending 14-0.

Richwood—Richwood was the last home game played by the Cowpunchers. The weather was cold and it was snowing when the game started. In spite of the west and slippery ground the Cowpunchers held Richwood down to 13 points and again the Cowpunchers failed to score.

Gahanna—The last game of the season was played at Gahanna. The Gahanna team was in high spirits because this was their homecoming. The Cowpunchers were in equally high spirits and were out to win. The first half was uneventful but in the fourth quarter they took the ball from midfield down to Gahanna's 5 yard line. After 2 downs the Cowpunchers moved to the one-yard line but on the fourth down they fumbled and lost all chances of scoring. The last game of the season ended in a score of 53-0.

Don't let the lost and won column fool you. The Cowpunchers were a better team than the record shows and they never stopped fighting. A well coached and well conditioned team, the Cowpunchers were victims of some funny bounces of the football.

1951 COURT

Mary Lou Spitzer, Queen Lois Dunfee, Sue Harper, Nonie Swauger, Jean Harding.

The Homecoming ceremonies sponsored by the Junior Class took place in the school auditorium and on the athletic field.

The pregame activities were started off by the band marching out and forming the traditional "M" for the convertibles to pass through. The attendants of last year, Ivalo Saunders, Barbara Morris, Sherry Coseo, and Betsy McLeish, with the attendants of the new court, Mary Lou Spitzer, Sue Harper, Jean Harding, and Nonie Swauger came first, and in the last two cars our Queen of last year, Bette Corbett, and the new Queen, Lois Dunfee. Bette crowned Lois as Queen of 1951 to reign over the game and the dance which followed. All members of both courts wore tailored suits with large yellow mums on their jackets.

The theme of the dance was "Stardust". The ceiling was draped with crepe paper with stars hanging from each strip. The lights were shaded, the railings were wrapped with paper and other decorations, and the curtain was pulled back with large sparkling stars scattered over it. The auditorium was filled and we are very glad that the Junior class had as fine a time at the ticket office as we did at the game and dance.

I, Jerry Wurm, will my ability to pass Family Relations' Finals to Bob Bartleson.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It was the spring of the year 1972—spring that wonderful time of the year when a young man's fancy usually turns to love. It was also rodeo time and I was planning to go.

Just as I started for the rodeo, I met my landlord, Dale Cooperider, and his wife, Evelyn. When I finally rescued myself from their talking and got into a cab, my driver was Dix Burke. As I stopped for a red light, I noticed the policeman, Larry Howard, arresting Dean Stookey for speeding.

When I reached the rodeo, I bought one ticket from Nancy Kean and a program from Pat Skeen. As I entered the grandstand I decided to purchase a cold drink. Behind the counter at the soft drink stand snapping off the bottle tops was Larry Morgan.

After a little chat and a root beer I was ushered to my seat by Julia Stifler. I was a little early and was scanning the program when I saw the name "Moore" in big black letters. I read on. I decided there could be only one Moore, Kenny Moore, who would take up this daring trick riding. Sure enough it was Kenny, and who do you think was his "waterboy"? Why, Eddie Hughes, of course!

At intermission I was gaily going through the crowd and happened to "bump into" Harriet Lynd Butler and her two lovely daughters. As we were talking of "the good old days" we saw one of the stable hands, a fellow classmate, Jerry Wurm. I had to say goodbye for it was almost time for the gala intermission show.

The theme for the show was "Buffalo Bill Rides Again." I knew it would be exciting, but it proved to be all that and more for when the great stallion came into the ring he had on his back, my old classmate Bill Miller as the one and only "Buffalo Bill".

At the end of the great half time performance they introduced a number of celebrities among whom I was not surprised to find Commodant Charles McGlinchey of the United States Coast Guard.

It was time for the second half of the rodeo and, as I was settling down for a few thrills and chills, I was asked by another usher, Flora Strider, if I would please let the glamorous Jane Mobley (now a popular television star) and her party pass in front of me.

Again I had to get settled in my seat, only to be approached by the popcorn man, Bob Gibney, another of my former classmates.

The second half of the exciting rodeo passed and all too soon it was time to go home.

I walked to the corner drug store to call a cab and behind the counter was the pharmacist, Betsy McLeish, and her partner, Sylvia Tincher. As we talked over chocolate malts we listened to the romantic voice on the radio of our own Dick Sinatra. My cab arrived and I had to leave for the hotel to pack my bags.

Back in my room at Howard-Thompson Hall (Pat Howard and Carolyn Thompson, Proprietors) I started gathering up my things when the desk clerk, Bobbie Morris, called to see if I was going to be there for dinner. I finished my packing and went down stairs on the elevator operated by Delores Shannon. After a fine dinner prepared by Dorothy Holland, I sent the bell-hop, Alfred Schoepke, up to my room for my bags.

I caught a taxi to the train station, and as luck would have it, my train was on time.

I boarded my train at 7:25 p. m. to find Bob Hilles as the conductor. Bob showed me to my seat and took care of my bags.

I was reading a copy of "Variety" I bought from Gloria Spitzer at the depot magazine stand, and here, too, I found Mifflin well represented. Nancy Hatcher is starring on Broadway. Ivalo Saunders is in from the Coast to do a few TV appearances before going to France to star with Bette Corbett in a new film. It seems Ivalo is doing quite well for herself. She has Gertrude Nash as her costume designer and Sherry Coseo as her chauffeur. (Remember when Sherry got her license when we were mere teen-agers?)

I went back to the diner to get a cup of coffee, made as only Marcia Russ could make it, and served by Carol Whalen. When I returned to my seat I found I had company and as I came closer it proved to be my good friend Marjorie Dillin on her way home from New York. She told me that Norma Grashel had just arrived in the States from Germany. Shirley Pittam had been in New York for a few days and was now on her way back to Philadelphia. After a much too short conversation Marjorie had to leave. I was alone again.

Riding along I wondered just where the many more I had known back at MHS had disappeared and if they had carried out their dreams and their ambitions. However that was something that might never be known, so I relaxed and enjoyed my ride home, knowing I had had a wonderful trip to a rodeo.

CALENDAR OF 1951-1952

SEPTEMBER

September came and we were not too anxious for school to start but—Remember—

Mifflin's big summer celebration was over and school started on the 4th.

Eyes bright, the Senior boys looked over the new crop of Freshman gals.

The big football carnival was played on our old gridiron.

On the 11th the noted football commentator, Bill Corley, gave a talk in assembly.

We chartered a bus for the big game at Cambridge on the 14th. Need we say more?

Pep, pep, and more pep. Our first rally. Mifflin vs. West Jefferson on the 21st.

And then came our first real taste of fall weather. Boy! Were those hot dogs delicious at the Reynoldsburg game! !

OCTOBER

October and our first grade cards. Ah me! Remember—

Rah! Rah! for the Boosters on their night. M. H. S. vs. Groveport.

Big Thrill! New members tapped for Franklin Honor Society in assembly on the 8th.

The 12th was Columbus Day and all that 1492 stuff!

Teachers' Convention and no school on the 19th. Yipee!

Our big G. A. A. meeting on the 23rd and election of officers.

Senior girls had a slumber party—Whoops! Did I say "slumber"? ? ! !

Senior paper drive—more money. Pretty good, eh?

Al Schoepke was a celebrity on T. V. the 28th. "Youth Has Its Say." Very good, Al. We were all proud of you.

NOVEMBER

November and a few snappy days . . . Remember—

Assembly . . . group singing. We didn't know we had so many canaries.

On the 8th, the Senior football players said "goodbye" to the dummy at "Senior Tackle".

The 11th was Armistice Day. HIP, HIP and HOORAY!

I guess we were having too much fun and mischief. The staff organized detention on the 16th.

AND about now the Seniors started having their graduation pictures taken. "Smile for the birdie!"

Thanksgiving—and every one was talking turkey and vacation.

The 23rd was our first basketball game at Berlin.

And rehearsals for the Senior play, "If Mother Only Knew," were held all month.

DECEMBER

December came with its snow and ice, Remember—

Busses had a hard time making it and so did schedules. However, the month got off to a good start with the Senior Class Play, "If Mother Only Knew", and it was a big success. Lots of profits too—just what we needed.

A big Christmas Party was planned for the 21st, but "Heap Big Snow" had the busses all tied up soooo—we had a nice Christmas vacation.

JANUARY

We began a new year. January and Resolutions. Remember—

"Oh How We Hate to Get up in the Morning," but we had a "mellow" vacation, so back to school and all those tests sort of took the wind out of our sails.

On the 7th the Juniors sponsored a movie, "You Can't Take It With You." Good!

And tapping of National Honor Society. Congratulations, lucky ones.

G. A. A. sponsored a skating party at Smith's Rink. Ah! Our achin' backs!

Basketball got into full swing—Hip, Hip, Hooray!

FEBRUARY

February and Valentine Day. Remember—

We were getting too big for Valentines, but rings started to appear in the Senior Class—so much glitter it almost put our eyes out.

We had round after round of flu, but Lincoln and Washington had their birthdays anyway on the 12th and 22nd respectively.

Practice was going right along for the County Music Festival.

The 11th was the big initiation of the Franklin Honor Society at Groveport. Lots of swell kids; Boy, are we glad we worked for that honor.

And now the end of grading period—and you know what that means!

MARCH

March came in like a real lion. Remember—

Snow, ice, rain and FLU. A lot of absentees. Did you take your turn?

Grade cards were in evidence. Good? Bad? Ah me!

The 13th the Juniors sponsored a skating party at Smith's.

And did you see all the "Wearin' of the Green" on March 17th?

We sure had some sharp get ups.

Spring, Spring, Beautiful Spring . . . March 20th was to be the first day of that occasion.

APRIL

April with the promise of nice weather just around the corner.

Spring—A young man's fancy—etc. Remember—

Did you get fooled on the first? Wow! Were our faces red!

Good Friday on the 11th and no school. Hurray! Everyone discussing new togs.

The 15th was the Seniors' skating party.

The practice for the Music Festival at Capital University got into full swing with the big event on the 1st. One of the nice events in which Mifflin participates.

MAY

The Seniors didn't have too much time left. The year had been an exciting one. We hope this calendar will be a reminder of some of the good times. Remember

The Spring Prom . . . The girls all looked like dreams—and the boys looked.

The Junior-Senior Assembly furnished a lot of fun and surprised quite a few.

BACCALAUREATE was the 18th. An extremely pretty ceremony and much good counsel.

The boys and girls (or should we say men and women now?) looked handsome in their blue and white caps and gowns.

Commencement on the 21st and the end of the trail for us. Did anyone forget to say his "Thank-you?"

Last day of school on the 23rd and another year of history made for MIFFLIN HIGH SCHOOL.

'Bye now—it's been fun.
